

FACT SHEET.

With over 32,000 students and 38 research units, the University of Rouen Normandy (URN) plays a leading role in both teaching and research in Normandy. We are involved in regional teaching and research clusters, and promote interregional research activities by developing nationally and internationally renowned scientific partnerships. We therefore partake in numerous international projects in partnership with over 50 countries.

As a multidisciplinary institution, URN is particularly devoted to making higher education accessible to all and fostering local economic and social development.

We have 7 campuses in Normandy, with a total of 12 faculties, institutes and schools.

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE PROGRAM 2024 - 2025

The Greater Rouen area is a great place to live, offering a wealth of heritage, culture and sports activities, as well as being a dynamic economic hub. Only an hour from the coast and an hour and a half from Paris by train, the University of Rouen Normandy is ideally situated.

Enhancing the university's appeal is at the heart of our policy and strategy. Focusing on our reach closer to home has been a driving force behind this. Beyond our higher education partners in Normandy, we are also busy building strong relationships with local actors.
